

Embassy of India, Rome

Press Release

On the occasion of celebration of Azadi ka Amit Mahotsav and as part of SRIJAN- The festival of India in Italy, a short Indian film festival has been organized at Casa del Cinema in Rome on september 25 and 26.

The Indian weekend was inaugurated by an enchanting dance performance by Svamini Atmananda Giri, of Italian Hindu Union, who received a standing ovation by the public. The cultural introduction was followed by the screening of the epic film Bahulai 1, with Italian subtitles. The second day of the festival saw the screening of a lively bollywood movie, Queen.

Screenings were attended by a large group of enthusiast locals as well as indian diaspora and students. Among the authorities and representatives of local intelligentsia who graced the occasion, there was also EU Special Representative for the Sahel and Former Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs and MP of Italy Emanuela Del Re.

New opportunities to meet Indian cinema and culture in Italy are being programmed not only in Rome and will soon be announced .

September 26, 2021