

Embassy of India, Rome

Important Notice: Fake Websites Offering Indian Visas & e-visas

A number of complaints have been received from applicants who applied for e-visa on fake websites and in the process were duped of hundreds of dollars in terms of the fees charged by such websites.

2. The Embassy has also received complaints that some websites claim payment of visa fees on its behalf. Please note that visa fees are to be paid only at the visa counters at the time of submission of visa application and in cash only. Embassy is working to switch over to payments through Cards which will be intimated once made operational.

3. According to available information the genesis of the problem lies in the Search engines. Anyone who performs an online search for e-Visa to India, the result throws up the following links and almost all the time, these links are displayed ahead of the actual Government of India website for e-Visa.

4. Unauthorised and fake third party websites are offering Indian Visa & e-Visa to foreign nationals, cheat and dupe them of their money. Following are some of such fake e-Visa to India links:-
