H.E. Mr. Luigi Traettino appointed as the Honorary Consul of India for Campania, Puglia and Basilicata regions

On behalf of the Government of India, the Embassy of India in Italy is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Luigi Traettino as the Honorary Consul of the Republic of India in Caserta for the consular district comprising Salerno, Napoli, Caserta, Avellino, Benevento, Basilicata and Puglia.

Mr. Traettino, a distinguished entrepreneur, brings his vast extensive experience and a strong commitment to strengthen and deepen India-Italy bilateral relations. As Honorary Consul, based in Caserta, he will play a pivotal role in promoting commercial, economic, cultural, consular and academic exchanges, enhancing mutual cooperation between the Campania, Basilicata and Puglia regions of Italy and India. His appointment underscores the importance of these regions as nodal hubs for enhancing India-Italy collaborations across domains.

Mr. Traettino has an impressive track record of leadership and service in the Italian business community. He is presently the President of Titagarh Firema Spa, an Indo-Italian JV. He is currently a member of the ABIE, Advisory Board for Foreign Investment in Confindustria.

The Embassy of India extends its warmest congratulations to Mr. Traettino on his new role and look forward to working closely with him.

He may be reached in the following coordinates:-
